Since retiring in the fall of 2001, Chris has been trying to master the art of intarsia (wood inlay artwork) at his home studio workshop in Sequim.

He has combined his love of woodworking and creative talents to create a style with depth and dimension.

He encourages interested people to visit his studio workshop by calling 360-681-7008 for directions.

I am a member of "The Pacific Northwest Wood Artisans" in Port Angeles, Washington.

Their motto is "Giving New Life to Forgotten Wood".
