

Gordon's Profile

I am a native of California and after retiring from law enforcement I moved to Sequim, Washington in 1994. I have always had an interest in drawing and oil painting and after moving to Sequim I took up wood carving. I have studied with Floyd Scholz of Vermont, Jim Sprankle of Florida, Dale Lane and Vern Jones of Washington and Dennis Drechsler of Victoria, B.C.

I enjoy teaching woodcarving with knives and chisels as well as power carving. I am an expert in duck decoys (see photo) and have recently branched out into carving raptors, mammals and birds. I also accept commissions.

I have a shop at my home at which a group of carvers meets every Tuesday from 1 – 4 p.m. I am also a member of the Kitsap Woodcarvers, Northwest Woodcarvers and Pacific Northwest Wood Artisans.
