

Gale Lawrence Profile

Gale Lawrence has been a member of Pacific Northwest Wood Artisans (PNWA) in Port Angeles for two years.

The year before my 1997 retirement, my uncle began teaching me his woodworking craft. I started with a birdhouse and ended with a carousel end table with a lot of furniture in-between. I have experimented with Intarsia, Driftwood Sculpture, and the most recent being woodcarving. I am a novice in most areas of the art of wood.

Being a member of PNWA gives me another flower to plant in my garden. The gift of time, skill and knowledge given by fellow PNWA members is an unexpected treasure. Come join us.

Their motto is “Giving New Life to Forgotten Wood”

Gale’s gallery of pictures is for display only. Come see what a novice can do. Email: glknhevn@yahoo.com

Gale’s Photos