

Pat Donlin is a Port Angeles, Washington resident originally from Kirkland, Washington where she learned her carving skills from Roy Colbert, Larry Carter and Lynn Scism.

Her main interest is in carving caricatures in the round.

Her work has previously been shown at Gallery North in Edmonds Washington and the Waterfront Gallery in Port Angeles.

I am a member of “The Pacific Northwest Wood Artisans” in Port Angeles, Washington.

Their motto is “Giving New Life to Forgotten Wood”.
